

UU Women's Historical Society
Cross Reference Index

This material has not been updated since 2012.

You may find the biographies of Notable U/U Women on the Dictionary of Unitarian and Universalist Biography. You may search for biographies individually or see all biographies by using the Search By Category: Notable U/U Women.

You may also see Standing Before Us by Dorothy May Emerson. Standing Before Us presents 160 years of women's work. It contains letters, essays, stories, poems, and speeches by Unitarian and Universalist women. The reformers and leaders represented here write and speak eloquently for social justice, equality in education, religious reform, and an end to slavery and prejudice. Standing Before Us includes a biographical sketch of each woman, and informative notes on the texts selected. A valuable addition to any UU history or women's studies library.

Additional reference materials are listed in the Other Publication column.
