

Thursday – Sunday, March 23 – 26, 2023

Attend In Person At Meadville Lombard Theological School in Chicago or Online

Students, laypeople, religious professionals, and scholars are invited to the inaugural international gathering of the new Unitarian Universalist Studies Network. The 2023 Convocation, Widening the Circle of UU Studies, will encourage presenters and attendees to engage across multiple and intersecting disciplines with the 2020 Report of the Commission on Institutional Change, Widening the Circle of Concern (Boston: UUA, 2020) which analyzes structural and systemic racism in Unitarian Universalism.

The Convocation will include presentations and panels from a variety of disciplines and perspectives that explore the imaginative, congregational, intellectual, and liberatory study of Unitarian Universalism, as well as communal meals and social hours to widen the network .

This event is offered on multiplatform. Registration is on a sliding scale, and a day pass is also available for in-person participation on Friday. Registration for In-Person Participation closes on March 16, 2023. Registration for Online Participation closes on March 23, 2023. Partial scholarships are available on a first-come, first-served basis at registration.
